Sisters Rodeo Special Edition

The Sisters Rodeo parade was well represented by Kiwanians, From Tom Wooster's 10 gallon hat, Al Boyette leading the Sisters Garden club precision gardeners, Jim Smith promoting the Rodeo breakfast, Ray and Katie Powers in there automobiles, and the Tay Robertson leading the Fire department with Sirens blaring, the parade was quite an event.

The Rodeo breakfast is always a highlight of the Rodeo both for the Cowboys eating breakfast and the Kiwanians preparing breakfast. Tim Comfort was on the grill with his frying pan orchestra and his flying hot cakes. Tammy Taylor on the other grill just kept turning out golden brown cakes for all the hungry folks. The Bacon Trio of Al Boyette, Howard Den Hartog and Debbi Stevens started frying bacon at 4:00 am. Bob Grooney manned the Cash register and collected the money.

The Sisters Rodeo parade was well represented by Kiwanians, From Tom Wooster's 10 gallon hat, Al Boyette leading the Sisters Garden club precision gardeners, Jim Smith promoting the Rodeo breakfast, Ray and Katie Powers in there automobiles, and the Tay Robertson leading the Fire department with Sirens blaring, the parade was quite an event.

The Rodeo breakfast is always a highlight of the Rodeo both for the Cowboys eating breakfast and the Kiwanians preparing breakfast. Tim Comfort was on the grill with his frying pan orchestra and his flying hot cakes. Tammy Taylor on the other grill just kept turning out golden brown cakes for all the hungry folks. The Bacon Trio of Al Boyette, Howard Den Hartog and Debbi Stevens started frying bacon at 4:00 am. Bob Grooney manned the Cash register and collected the money.

Sisters Rodeo
 Special Edition

The Sisters Rodeo parade was well represented by Kiwanians, From Tom Wooster's 10 gallon hat, Al Boyette leading the Sisters Garden club precision gardeners, Jim Smith promoting the Rodeo breakfast, Ray and Katie Powers in there automobiles, and the Tay Robertson leading the Fire department with Sirens blaring, the parade was quite an event.

The Rodeo breakfast is always a highlight of the Rodeo both for the Cowboys eating breakfast and the Kiwanians preparing breakfast. Tim Comfort was on the grill with his frying pan orchestra and his flying hot cakes. Tammy Taylor on the other grill just kept turning out golden brown cakes for all the hungry folks. The Bacon Trio of Al Boyette, Howard Den Hartog and Debbi Stevens started frying bacon at 4:00 am. Bob Grooney manned the Cash register and collected the money.

Sisters Rodeo Special Edition

The Sisters Rodeo parade was well represented by Kiwanians, From Tom Wooster's 10 gallon hat, Al Boyette leading the Sisters Garden club precision gardeners, Jim Smith promoting the Rodeo breakfast, Ray and Katie Powers in there automobiles, and the Tay Robertson leading the Fire department with Sirens blaring, the parade was quite an event.

The Rodeo breakfast is always a highlight of the Rodeo both for the Cowboys eating breakfast and the Kiwanians preparing breakfast. Tim Comfort was on the grill with his frying pan orchestra and his flying hot cakes. Tammy Taylor on the other grill just kept turning out golden brown cakes for all the hungry folks. The Bacon Trio of Al Boyette, Howard Den Hartog and Debbi Stevens started frying bacon at 4:00 am. Bob Grooney manned the Cash register and collected the money.

The Objectives of Kiwanis

To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.

To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.

To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.

To develop, by precepts and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.

To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.

To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and good will.

The mission of Sisters Kiwanis is "Service to the community with an emphasis on youth."
